- Please tell us about your interest in serving on this Committee. What do you hope to contribute, and how would you support the Committee?

I am a passionate advocate for community well-being and environmental stewardship here in Essex County. Parks play a vital role in fostering recreation, connection, and sustainability within our communities. With my experience in conservation advocacy and community engagement, I hope to support initiatives that enhance the park's accessibility, environmental integrity, and enjoyment for residents of all ages and abilities.

- Please tell us about your community involvement and employment background, including any skills and experience relevant to this position. What were your roles and responsibilities?

I am a new member of the Affordable Housing Task Force and hope to join this committee as well, to translate my passions into action for our community. I have experience in conservation advocacy, volunteering, and community engagement! I am adept with technology and enjoy learning new skills for personal and professional development.

- Outline your experience with park and recreational facility management

I do not have direct experience in this realm, but believe my skills and experiences are transferable for success.

- Outline your experience with financial management.

I manage my own finances along with the joint account that I share with my partner. I am responsible with money and allocation.
