Our cover

A graphic illustration of where Canadians drown: Lakes/ponds (35%), Rivers (26%), Bathtubs (13%), Pools (9%), Ocean (6%), Other (11%). Derived from the Society's 2024 Canadian Drowning Report.

Teaching Canadians to save themselves and rescue others

Annually, over 1.2 million Canadians participate in our swimming, lifesaving, lifeguard, first aid and leadership programs. Each year, we certify thousands of instructors who provide the leadership for our training programs. Over 30,000 Canadians earn our Bronze Medallion each year. As Canada's lifeguarding experts, we set the standard for lifeguard training and certify Canada's National Lifeguards.

Making Canadians Water Smart®

The Lifesaving Society focuses Water Smart drowning prevention efforts on people most at risk – like men fishing in small boats – or on those who can make a significant difference, such as parents of young children. We deliver Water Smart messages through our swim program, media and community action. Our Swim to Survive® program provides the essential minimum skills required to survive an unexpected fall into deep water.

Drowning research

The Lifesaving Society conducts research into fatal and non-fatal drowning, aquatic injury and rescue interventions. Ongoing research and analysis supports the Society's evidence-based water-rescue training and Water Smart drowning prevention education.

Setting the standard

The Lifesaving Society establishes aquatic safety standards and consults on aquatic safety issues for the aquatic industry, governments and the judiciary. The Society offers a suite of services to help aquatic facility operators maintain and improve safe pool and waterfront operations. We perform aquatic safety audits and serve as experts in legal cases involving aquatic safety.

Lifesaving sport

The Lifesaving Society is the Canadian governing body for lifesaving sport – a sport recognized by the International Olympic Committee and the Commonwealth Games Federation. We use lifesaving sport to engage and inspire youth in our drowning prevention mission. Our Lifesaving Sport Fundamentals program offers a recreational introduction to lifesaving sport skills. Junior, senior and masters athletes compete regionally, provincially, nationally and internationally. We offer certification programs for officials and coaches.

The Lifesaving Society

The Lifesaving Society is a full-service provider of programs, products and services designed to prevent drowning. We save lives and prevent water-related injury through our training programs, Water Smart public education, drowning research, aquatic safety management and lifesaving sport.

We are a national volunteer organization and registered charity composed of ten provincial/territorial branches, tens of thousands of individual members, and over 4,000 affiliated swimming pools, waterfronts, schools and clubs.

The Lifesaving Society is a leader and partner in the delivery of water safety education throughout Canada and around the world. (The Society operates globally in over 25 countries.) We represent Canada in the Commonwealth Royal Life Saving Society and we are Canada's Full Member in the International Life Saving Federation. The Lifesaving Society takes lead responsibility for drowning prevention in Canada.

We have been teaching swimming, water safety and water rescue in Canada since 1896. Established in England (1891) as The Swimmers' Life Saving Society, we became The Royal Life Saving Society in 1904. Today, we are known as simply the Lifesaving Society.

*Lifesaving Society, Water Smart, Swim to Survive, Swim for Life and National Lifeguard Service are all registered trademarks of the Royal Life Saving Society Canada.

Land Acknowledgment

The Lifesaving Society Ontario is situated on the ancestral lands of Indigenous peoples, a region rich in rivers and lakes. We are grateful to pursue our drowning prevention work on this extraordinary territory. These are the sacred lands of the Anishnabeg, Haudenosaunee, Mississaugas of the Credit and Wendat peoples, and home to many Indigenous peoples from across Turtle Island.

As we think about our place in the world, we invite you to think about yours, and to pay respect to those who came before. We are mindful of broken covenants and the need to partner with the Indigenous peoples who continue to call this land home, and to act as fellow stewards – to share and care for this land and its waterways for generations to come.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

I never imagined I'd be starting this report with a reference to Dr. Seuss, but in reflecting on 2024 and the incredible accomplishments that have been achieved, "Oh, the Places You'll Go!" was the first thought that came to mind.

As the story begins, "Congratulations! Today is your day. You're off to Great Places! You're off and away!"

So, in the spirit of Dr. Seuss, away we go...

2024 was a milestone year for all our activity centres. Leadership wrapped up a project launched in 2015 by the Leadership Task Force. It was a marathon – not a sprint! The talented Leadership team successfully popped the last piece into the Society's leadership training system with the launch of an in-person recertification course for instructors, coaches, examiners and examiner mentors. The Leadership section of this report highlights the success of the new program.

Training Programs celebrates the first time participation numbers in the Society's many program offerings surpassed one million (see Awards Report, page 6). Training Programs was busy hosting Seasonal Affiliate Meetings, pre-revision Swim for Life and Swim Patrol meetings, Swim Update Clinics as well as Lunch 'n' Learn webinars. Training Programs also supported the National Sports Commission of Guyana... take a peek at page 11 for more on this exciting initiative.

Friendly competition is de rigueur for the team in Lifesaving Sport, and competitor and club development continued through Ontario Championships in the Town of Essex, City of Orillia, City of Markham and the Town of Saugeen Shores. Ontario continues to be a leader in sport development including the phenomenal dedication repeatedly demonstrated by officials and volunteers. We look forward to watching Lifesaving Sport continue with this momentum in 2025 and beyond.

Public Education continues to lead the way contributing to our collective mission and approved applications for almost 88,000 students in the Swim to Survive and Swim to Survive+ programs. National Drowning Prevention Week featured numerous successful community events including World Drowning Prevention Day (July 25, 2024) saw numerous buildings and monuments across Ontario "Go Blue." The interest generated in 2024 is sure to grow, and I look forward to reporting on even more blue in the next annual report. Public Education was also instrumental in the Society's distribution of a letter to 100,000 members supporting the Society's position of mandatory wearing of lifejackets/PFDs for all ages in small recreational vessels. With Ontario Drowning Report figures continuing to demonstrate lack of PFD use in boating incidents, it is vital that we continue to advocate for these critical layers of safety.

"Great places" are nothing new for Safety Standards, which completed an incredible 10 safety audits in pools and waterfronts in 2024. They also developed a Major Incident Management toolbox as an important resource for post-incident support. In addition, research partnerships with Toronto Metropolitan University, the University of Windsor and Conestoga College produced work in valuable aquatic topics such as beach water monitoring, communication, lighting levels in indoor pools and heat stress. Turn to page 14 to read more!

Management Training continued to provide innovative training and certification opportunities to aquatic and facility staff via conference opportunities, webinars and courses, including work on Pool Operator and Safety Management Inspection courses.

Any trip to a “great place” requires significant organization and assistance, and once again that was no exception – and no problem – for Member Services. Their continued support of the Board of Directors, Council of Officers, nine Activity Centre Councils, and Area Chairs is second-to-none, in addition to planning and hosting events such as our Annual General Meeting, Affiliate Recognition Awards and the annual Area Chair Conference.

In 2024, we were delighted to welcome The Honourable Edith Dumont, Lieutenant Governor of Ontario as Honorary Patron of the Lifesaving Society Ontario Branch. In this capacity, Her Honour hosted the Society’s Commonwealth Honour Award recipients at Queen’s Park investiture in December (see page 22).

In addition to the contributions of volunteers and staff in roles at the national and international level, we are blessed to have an incredible office staff team who continue to inspire and amaze. On a melancholy note, please take a moment to turn to page 25 for a heartfelt In Memoriam to Phil McCurdy who is greatly missed.

I am extremely proud of the resilience and dedication of all our staff and volunteers as well as the camaraderie and life-long relationships and friendships born out of our passion and dedication to our drowning prevention mission.

I look forward to 2025 and working towards our vision of a Canada free from drowning and water-related injury.

“Today is your day! Your mountain is waiting. So... get on your way!”

TREASURER'S REPORT

The summary financial information presented here is derived from the Royal Life Saving Society Canada, Ontario Branch ("the Society") audited consolidated statements for the year ended December 31, 2024. These include the results of the Drowning Prevention Research Centre Canada, a federally incorporated registered charity controlled by the Society. Detailed audited consolidated financial statements of the Royal Life Saving Society Canada, Ontario Branch are available upon request.

The Society reported net revenue of $11.6 million in 2024, with expenditures of $11.3 million, resulting in a surplus of $365,000. This represents a decline from the $1.2 million surplus achieved in 2023, primarily due to increased expenditures, particularly in salaries and benefits, alongside a modest revenue contraction in certain areas. Despite this, the Society remains in a strong financial position, continuing to invest in its core programs and strategic initiatives.

Water Rescue generated net revenues of $4.1 million, representing a 2% decline compared to 2023. This moderation reflects a leveling-off in course registrations, indicating that the growth momentum following the Swim Transition has stabilized.

Literature net revenues totaled $2.4 million, down 2% from 2023, as affiliates drew down stock-piled book inventories rather than making new purchases. This trend confirms the normalization in demand following the heightened adoption of new materials during the Swim Transition period.

Leadership net revenues grew notably, reaching $1.3 million—20% above 2023. This expansion was driven by new affiliates following the Swim Transition and more instructor certification volumes linked to higher activity levels in Toronto contract training programs.

Merchandise sales declined 15% year-over-year to $503,000, largely due to the exit from the U.S. market through Barrier Waterman and lower sales of specialized equipment, such as AquaEye devices.

Lifesaving Sport continued to gain traction, with net revenues rising 7% to $262,000. This was fueled by growing participation in both local and national competitions, reflecting the Society's ongoing efforts to enhance the visibility and engagement of its Sport programming.

Other income sources increased again in 2024. Investment income was $992,000, up from a strong $858,000 in 2023, with two years of strong investment portfolio returns of 15.8% and 20.5%, respectively. Also, Swim to Survive grants utilized were $1.3 million, up from $1.2 million in 2023.

Total expenditures in 2024 rose to $11.3 million, an increase of 9% from the prior year, driven primarily by higher salaries and benefits, including new hires to support programs, increased Swim loyalty "cash back" paid to affiliates and higher travel and meeting costs that supported the increased activities reflected in competitive sport, all of which gets allocated across multiple program areas.

The Society secured a $2.3 million mortgage to purchase its new headquarters and withdrew $2.1 million from investments in 2024 to support the new office and warehouse relocation. The negative working capital primarily reflects this new mortgage debt and withdrawn investment principal. Despite the outflows, the Society maintained a year-end investment balance of $5 million.

In conclusion, the Society's financial performance in 2024 was once again strong, characterized by growth across various programs and prudent expense management. It remains well-positioned for sustained success in advancing its mission of preventing drowning and reducing water-related injury in the ensuing years.

TRAINING PROGRAMS

Training Programs contribute to the mission of the Society by developing and supporting the delivery of training programs and related education products and services to prevent drowning and water-related injury and to train Ontarians how to swim and (or rescue themselves and others) on or around the water.

Swim Committee

Many thanks to our hard-working Swim Committee: Lisa Brandie (Chair), Alex Brown, Erin Burrell, Kennedy Connors, Elisabeth Drouillard, Lynda Kissner, Gretha Lalbachian, Elyse Loughton, Sarah Loughton, Daniel Morson, Kayla Pariselli and Jaylen Peters

Seasonal affiliate meetings

In May and June, the Swim Committee hosted four virtual Swim Affiliate meetings for Seasonal Swim Licensees. These meetings attracted over 100 participants and served as a platform for networking, idea sharing, building connections and addressing key programming questions.

Pre-revision research

In four special meetings in November, the Swim Committee hosted 115 representatives of year-round Swim Licensees to solicit feedback on and recommendations for improvement to the Society's Swim for Life and Swim Patrol programs.

Also in November, the Swim Committee surveyed Swim and Lifesaving Instructors and Trainers attracting over 1,100 responses. The results of both initiatives were compiled and forwarded to the National Society.

Swim Update Clinics

In October and November, Swim Committee members and friends volunteered to deliver seven Swim Update Clinics to prepare City of Kitchener aquatic staff for the successful 2020 roll out of the Society's Swim for Life program. A special thank you to friends: Brook Beatty, Kristy Falk, Patrick King and Shalyn Swan

Content Creation

The Swim Committee completed a review of all website content for consistency and accuracy and drafted three brochure articles to support the development of new and current Swim instructors.

First Aid market readiness

The Society is committed to providing robust and forward-facing first aid programs for customers and its affiliate members. To this end, the First Aid Committee developed a Strategic Outlook that identifies and prioritizes first aid projects critical to ensuring the Society's suite of first aid awards reflect the needs of the evolving first aid marketplace.

Thank you to First Aid Chair Andrew Oman and committee members: Hayley Callen, Lauren Dalweg, Stephanie Henry, Craig Jenner, Penny Letour, Zane Muzaffar, Diana Reed, Scott Ruddle, Tamara Wood and Ben Zimmerman for their hard work over the past year.

Lifeguard Services Committee

We thank members of the Lifeguard Services Committee who worked diligently on the projects below: Adrian Wong (Chair), Brook Beatty, Kevin Button, Stephanie Jarvis, Shelley Makepeace, Peter Muenford, Robin Rankin, Tasha Richardson, Scott Ruddle, Blair Niblett, Mark Parayani and Wasi Rizvi

Jocelyn Palm Cup

To engage and inform affiliates interested in competing for the Jocelyn Palm Cup, Lifeguard Services developed and published a new affiliate guide to applying for the cup. Affiliates were invited to a webinar session to learn more about the application and evaluation process.

The Society annually awards the Jocelyn Palm Cup to the Affiliate Member making the most outstanding contribution to the National Lifeguard program. The cup is one of two still life recognition awards based on nominations rather than points earned in the calendar year.

Lunch 'n' Learn webinars

Lifeguard Services hosted Lunch 'n' Learn webinars to celebrate the great work affiliates are doing as leaders in the aquatic industry. Topics included Planning Seeds for the Future of Aquatics with guest speakers from the Town of Essex and the City of Kitchener; and Making Aquatics an Attractive Career Path with guest speakers from the City of Orillia and the City of Vaughan. These webinars were recorded and published on the Lifesaving Society's YouTube channel.

Thanks to the volunteers who put countless hours into developing content and shooting and editing the videos that will be used in forthcoming resources. Thanks to the City of Vaughan for their support.

A special thanks to our Resource Development Committee: Megan Mintz (Chair), Brendan McMahon and Carolyn Reinhart for their expertise, analysis and commitment to support a consistent, professional look and feel to the video footage.

Training in Guyana

Lifesaving Society Ontario responded to a 2024 request from the National Sports Commission of Guyana for assistance in running a lifeguard training program to enhance water safety and reduce drowning in the country. National Trainers Sarah Newton and Tamara Wood volunteered to lead the training program, which consisted of 25 candidates in Standard First Aid, 20 in Bronze Medallion, 18 in Bronze Cross and 15 National Lifeguards.

Bronze Committee

In 2024, the Bronze Committee recruited additional enthusiastic and dedicated members to aid in the development of resources for those seeking Bronze medal courses. The committee carried out a resource review and gap analysis and used the findings to create a strategic plan to guide their activities and prioritize projects for the coming years. They worked on bringing a couple of projects that have been in development towards their final review stages and are excited to be able to share them with everyone soon.

Thanks to Ashley Hutchison (Chair) and committee members Alax Brown, Sam Michael Coppa, Julia Cybulski, Bobby Farlow, Cody Flomen, Daniel Geiger, Pedram Ghafouri, Craig Jenner, Zak Kolasa, Ali Mohamed, Zane Muzaffar, Jaylen Peters, Michella Rowe, Melanie Samborski, AJ Sousa and Julie Turnbull.

LEADERSHIP

The Leadership Activity Centre contributes to the Society's mission by developing the instructors, coaches, examiners and trainers who teach Ontarians how to swim, how to rescue, and how to be safe in, on and around the water. Leadership supports the mandates of Training Programs, Lifesaving Sport, Safety Standards, Management Training, Public Education and Area Services.

This passionate group is lead by Leadership vice president Kerry Wakefield and chairs Elisabeth Drouillard, Jason Jolicoeur, Charlene Pugh, Tiffany Vis and Tamara Wood.

Recertification Launch

Recertification is a significant requirement for those holding Lifesaving Society leadership certifications. To remain current, leadership personnel must recertify their leadership awards every 24 months. This results in over 14,000 recertifications annually in Ontario.

In 2024, the Society introduced a modernized Leadership recertification system featuring a new "points" system designed to encourage the earning of awards and acquiring new skills, and to recognize significant contributions individuals make to the Society.

An in-person recertification course also provides instructors, coaches, examiners and examiner mentors an alternative way to earn the necessary four points for recertification in a course format. The four-hour in-person course streamlines the leadership recertification process for those currently certified and for those previously certified who want to re-engage in their aquatic careers. In its first 12 months, the in-person course recertified almost 1200 individuals!

Leadership recertification was part of the Society's competency-based leadership system that began in 2015. Originally, Brad McConnell chaired the recertification topic on the Society's Leadership Task Force. The current Leadership Council, led by Jason Jolicoeur, brought this project to conclusion.

We express our deepest gratitude to everyone who contributed, including past and present members of the Leadership Task Force and Leadership Council. A special thank you to Kerry Wakefield, Tamara Wood, Marek Holke, Katie Short and Adam Eastman for their unwavering dedication in this initiative.

OTAS Recertification

The Ontario Teachers' Aquatic Standard (OTAS) program is designed for secondary school teachers who teach basic swimming skills, drills and progressions to students in indoor school pools.

The OTAS certification was revised in 2023. In 2024, Jason Jolicoeur and Kerry Wakefield completed the OTAS recertification module, ensuring that teachers can continue to effectively implement and run the program in their school pools.

Don Fawcett Bursary

The Don Fawcett Leadership Bursary provides financial assistance to high school students pursuing aquatic leadership certifications. Eligibility is restricted to students enrolled in Ontario boards of education that participate in Ontario Teachers Aquatic Standard (OTAS). Peel District School Board students Jake Dellio, Olivia Dellio and Evan Robinson were awarded bursaries in 2024.

The Bursary honours the memory of Don Fawcett, educator and former executive director of the OTAS program, in recognition of his leadership and dedication to the aquatic field.

National Trainer Summit

Thirty-four National Trainers from Ontario and Atlantic provinces came together virtually in November to share, network and provide input into project work for the Society. Thank you to Charlene Pugh and Tamara Wood for leading the charge on this valuable opportunity and for the support from Lis Drouillard, Jason Jolicoeur and Kerry Wakefield in executing the event.

Quality assurance and certification review

The effectiveness of the Society's training programs relies on upholding its certification standards. The Society investigated written complaints in 2024 concerning standards, program delivery and behaviour. Investigations led to six formal Certification Reviews and one Appeal. These reviews resulted in sanction, temporary suspension, revocation or decertification for various offenses.

We thank Patrick King (VP Training Program) and Kerry Wakefield (VP Leadership), who took lead roles on behalf of the Board. We also thank the following National Trainers and Area Chairs who volunteered as panelists on certification review committees: Lisa Adams, Brook Beatty, Mitchell Blimkie, Rebecca Boyd, Lisa Brandie, Patrick D'Almada, Elisabeth Drouillard, Craig Jenner, Lynda Kissner, Penny Lecour, Jerry Lynch, Sarah Newton, Andrew Oman, Charlene Pugh, Tasha Richardson, Katie Short, Samantha Slofstra, Julie Turnbull, Tiffany Vis and Adrian Wong.

MANAGEMENT TRAINING

Management Training contributes to the mission of the Society by providing training and certification opportunities for leadership personnel who help aquatic facility owners, managers and operators prevent drowning and water-related incidents.

In April, Paul Di Salvo assumed new responsibilities as President-Elect and Sean Duffy succeeded him as Vice President Management Training. A veteran volunteer of the Safety Standards and Management Training activity centres, Minnie Fisher retired after many years of securing speakers and coordinating conference sessions.

Professional development

Minnie Fisher ensured the successful delivery of Lifesaving Society sessions at the 2024 PRO Aquatic Conference. She also ensured that Society representatives presented on aquatic safety topics at regional workshops such as YRAC and SMAC.

Aquatic management training

Management Training Chair Jerry Lynch monitored the new Aquatic Supervisor and Aquatic Manager programs and was the final certifier of safety management leadership personnel who apprenticed in 2024.

Pool operations

David Pignataro, Pool Operations Chair, continued work on the revision of the Society's Pool Operator programs in preparation of the development of new leadership materials. He conducted a survey seeking input to these revisions, the results of which were discussed by the Management Training Council. With additional input from the field, the Council of Officers approved Management Training's motion to revise the Society's two-level Pool Operator program as a single-level course. Efforts have turned to the development of program content and instructor resources.

Management proficiency

Jennifer Fruscella, chair of this committee, focused her efforts on the review of the Lifesaving Society's 2018 Staff Shortage Report, surveying affiliate members, hosting a Council of Officers session to gather input, and finally producing a report late in 2024. She continues to focus on this project and will continue to build a database of resources that affiliates can use to address this issue.

Webinars

Webinar chair Nikolay Nikolov joined Management Training Council in 2024. He began by researching topics for Lifesaving Society hosted webinars and setting an annual calendar of webinars for 2024–2025. In 2024, he hosted webinars on topics that assisted over 700 registered attendees in the management of safe aquatic facilities. These webinars were recorded and posted to the Lifesaving Society's YouTube channel.

Safety Management Inspection courses

Vicktor Verblac, new Chair of Safety Management Inspection Courses, got out of the gate quickly and began drafting an award guide and related PowerPoint presentation for Aquatic Safety Inspector Instructors.

SAFETY STANDARDS

Safety Standards contributes to the mission of the Society by setting and clarifying standards and by providing tools that help pool and waterfront owners, managers and operators prevent drowning and maximize public safety.

2024 was a year of renewal in the volunteer ranks of the Safety Standards Council. Following decades of skilled and dedicated leadership, Gary Sanger stepped down as vice president.

Nathalie V Martin retired as Research Chair after 13 years of service and a legacy of strong project relationships with the universities that train Ontario's public health inspectors.

Under the leadership of new Vice President Lisa Adams, the Safety Standards Council welcomed new chairs: Wasi Rizvi (Research), Patrick D'Almada (Safety Audits) and Andrea Slade (Safety Standards).

Research partnerships

Under the direction of Nathalie V Martin and now Wasi Rizvi, the Society continued research with its partners Metropolitan Toronto University (formerly Ryerson University), the University of Windsor and Conestoga College. Research topics in 2024 included "Beach Water Monitoring Programs in Ontario: An Assessment of Publicly Available Information"; "Variations in Communication"; and "Assessment of Lighting Levels in Indoor Pools." Work began on research into heat stress on lifeguards.

Audit services

The Lifesaving Society completed 10 safety audits in Ontario swimming pools and waterfronts in 2024.

Safety Audit Services chairs Lisa Adams and now Patrick D'Almada continued development work on an aquatic industry safety awards program and updating audit resources for 2024. Lisa added new applications to assist with the safety audit process. WhatsApp allowed auditors to inspect, record and add photos to a database which would assist in building comprehensive reports. Updates to the UDATA database reflected changes in standards and modifications for audit report recommendations.

A Chief Auditor Recertification clinic delivered by Patrick D'Almada in October updated 12 Chief Auditors.

Incident management resources

Incident Management Chair Teresa Taylor developed a Lifesaving Society Major Incident Management toolbox with resources to assist supervisory staff and pool operators in the aftermath of major incidents. Teresa also developed a survey to monitor use of current online resources and to seek input on future revisions and new resource development.

Regulation Review

In 2024, under the guidance of chair Janice Carroll, the Regulation Review Committee focused on a review of the Society's current waterfront safety and waterslide standards. This work continues into 2025.

Court and Inquest

Rob Richardson, Chair of the Court and Inquest Committee submitted the "Amelia Yeoman Inquest Report" for approval by the Safety Standards Council. The committee has turned its attention to a case involving the drowning of a young man in Algonquin Provincial Park.

Safety Standards

All existing safety standards are now accessible on the Lifesaving Society Ontario website. Safety Standards Chair Andrea Slade leads an initiative to develop a standard on the use of electronic devices in aquatic facilities.

National Safety Standards Commission

Representing Ontario on the Society's National Safety Standards Commission, Sean Duffy participated in the development of several new national standards in 2024. These are available on the Society's national website. Michael Shane assumed Ontario's spot on the commission when Sean moved to new responsibilities as Management Training Vice President.

Expert witness

In 2024, the Lifesaving Society was retained as an expert in eight cases to assist law firms in reviewing incidents in aquatic settings in Ontario, Quebec and Prince Edward Island.

LIFESAVING SPORT

Lifesaving sport is the only sport whose skills are first learned for humanitarian purposes. Through lifesaving sport, the Lifesaving Society seeks to engage and inspire youth in our drowning prevention mission.

Ontario's lifesaving sport community experienced a remarkable year featuring 12 sanctioned regional competitions and seven provincial championships. This year saw the participation of 652 competitors across 26 clubs, showcasing exceptional athleticism, teamwork and dedication to lifesaving sport and its drowning prevention mission. Additionally, four TeleGames drew 486 participants from 12 clubs. TeleGames continue to be a vital initiative, connecting athletes from different regions and fostering grassroots engagement in lifesaving competition.

PUBLIC EDUCATION

Public Education contributes to the mission of the Society by increasing awareness of the risks associated with activities in, on and around water. The aim is to modify Ontarians' at-risk behaviour to eliminate drowning and water-related injury.

School grant program

The Society approved applications for 71,591 Grade 3 students and 16,219 Grade 7 students for Swim to Survive and Swim to Survive+ training respectively for the 2023/24 school year.

The school grant programs would not be possible without the generous support of the Ontario Ministry of Education since 2006. In August 2024, the Ministry confirmed a grant of $1.7 million to support the Society's school grant program through the 2024/2025 school year.

Special thanks to Jillian Hamilton for her guidance and assistance as part of the Application Approval Committee. The Society greatly appreciates the long-standing and continuing support of PPL Aquatic, Fitness and Spa Group for the Swim to Survive and Swim to Survive+ programs.

National Drowning Prevention Week

The Lifesaving Society designated July 21–27 as National Drowning Prevention Week (NDPW) to focus community and media attention on the drowning issue and drowning prevention. NDPW provides a focus around which community educators can plan news releases, do media interviews, and deliver public demonstrations and other events. Many successful community events took place across Ontario. Resources were shared on our website for affiliates, partners and community coalitions with a focus on non-fatal drowning and the importance of lifejackets.

World Drowning Prevention Day

The UN General Assembly Resolution on Global Drowning Prevention designated July 25 as World Drowning Prevention Day to be observed globally every year. Activities in Canada varied by province. Lifesaving Society Ontario shared social media posts and encouraged buildings/monuments to "Go Blue" on July 25. Participants included: Toronto's CN Tower, the Fred A. Lundy Bridge in Newmarket, Lansdown Park in Ottawa, Mississauga Clock Tower, Niagara Falls, Oakville Performing Arts Centre, Oakville Town Hall, the OTTAWA sign in ByWard Market, Riverwalk Commons in Newmarket, Ottawa's TD Place, Vaughan City Hall and Windsor City Hall.

Water Smart contest

Municipal Chair Judith Schultz led the 2024 Water Smart colouring contest won by Jimmie Simpson (6–10 years) and Josiah Lewis (11–15 years).

Mandatory lifejacket wear

The Lifesaving Society prepared and distributed a letter to more than 100,000 members encouraging them to participate in Transport Canada's Public Consultation on Mandatory Wearing of Personal Floatation Devices & Lifejackets (September 4 – November 4, 2024) in support of the Society's position of mandatory wearing of lifejackets/PFDs for all ages in recreational vessel types six metres or less in length.

Research

The Lifesaving Society reports on drowning and unintentional water-related deaths. These reports provide a comprehensive fact base to guide the Society and others in developing effective drowning prevention solutions. Data for Canadian provinces and territories is extracted from the Offices of Chief Coroners and Medical Examiners and analyzed by the Drowning Prevention Research Centre Canada (DPRC) – the lead agency for drowning and water-incident research in Canada.

Fatal drowning

In 2024, the DPRC produced provincial/territorial infographic reports for Lifesaving Society Branches in British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario, Québec, Newfoundland and Labrador, and for Northern Canada. The DPRC also produced a 2024 national infographic report and the 2024 Canadian Drowning Report for Lifesaving Society Canada.

Delays in data availability in some provinces/territories caused by Covid-19 continue, but where available, the most current data was provided to each Branch across the country. Nationally, data was available for years up to and including 2019. In Ontario, data was available for years up to and including 2020.

Interim drowning data

Interim data offers a glimpse into the drowning mortality rate of any given year. Interim data on fatal drownings is derived from internet and media monitoring services across Canada. This data is later reconciled with Coroner and Medical Examiners' reports. Annually, it provides information on approximately half of all drowning fatalities in Canada.

In Ontario, preliminary interim data showed an overall 8% decrease in 2024 drowning incidents compared to 2023.

Increased media reports involving aquatic incidents were reported in 2024 (+16%). This was offset by a decrease in reports involving boating activities (-20%).

Where Canadians drown: Lakes/ponds (35%), Rivers (26%), Bathtubs (13%), Pools (9%), Ocean (6%), Other (11%) e.g., hot tubs, ditches, canals, quarries.

Source: Lifesaving Society 2024 Canadian Drowning Report

In Ontario, fewer drownings among children under 5 years were reported than in previous years, but the number of media reports involving adults 20–34 years increased (+26%). There were noticeable decreases (-45%) in reported drownings among adults 65 years and older.

By comparison, interim data for Canada indicated an overall increase in fatal drownings (+7%). Increases in reported drownings in New Brunswick (+100%), Manitoba (+27%) and British Columbia (+17%) were offset by decreases in Nova Scotia (-22%), Ontario (-8%) and Quebec (-5%).

There was a rise in fatalities involving non-aquatic activities: falls into water increased 27% and boating fatalities increased 10%.

Mapping boating-related drowning incidents

Work concluded with the DPRC on the second phase of an innovative three-year Transport Canada-funded boating safety project to map boating-related incidents in three recreational boating communities in Quebec, Ontario and British Columbia. The final report was submitted to Transport Canada in March 2024.

Newcomers to Canada

The Society continues to update its understanding of the drowning prevention needs of Canada's multicultural population. In 2024, the Society surveyed approximately 3,000 adult residents of Canada (Canada born and non-Canada born) to identify drowning risk among different ethnic groups; to identify barriers to participation in aquatic activities; and to identify drowning prevention strategies and ways to encourage participation in swimming and lifeguarding programs.

Respondents born outside Canada included international students, refugees and immigrants. Immigrants were further identified as those who have lived in Canada more than five years and fewer than five years.

MEMBER SERVICES

Member Services develops and maintains the corporate functions, systems and infrastructure required to support and service the membership of the Society.

Governance

The National Society is governed by a volunteer Board of Directors nominated by provincial/territorial branches and elected at the Society's AGM. National commissions are led by volunteer commissioners who report to the Board of Directors. These commissions are: Training Programs, Lifesaving Sport, Safety Standards and International Relations. A management team is comprised of senior staff of the 10 branches.

Lifesaving Society Ontario is governed by an elected volunteer Board of Directors with a volunteer Council of Officers and nine activity centre councils composed of professionals in recreation, education, business, finance, management, and medical and legal professions.

Ontario Council of Officers

The Council of Officers is composed of two representatives of each activity centre council (see below), the president as chair, and the president-elect. Members of the Council of Officers are nominated by the respective activity centre council and appointed by the Board of Directors for two-year terms.

The Council of Officers represents active, affiliate and award members; manages topics not assigned to a single activity centre (e.g., governance review) or topics that are the responsibility of multiple activity centre councils (e.g., affiliate recognition review); and monitors the work of the Board of Directors. Any member of the Society may attend and speak at meetings of the Council of Officers.

Activity Centre Councils

Lifesaving Society Ontario organizes its drowning prevention work in activity centres: Training Program, Leadership, Public Education, Safety Standards, Management Training, Lifesaving Sport, Fundraising, Member Services and Area Services.

Activity centre councils are chaired by the topical vice-president or an individual appointed by the board. Councils are composed of portfolio chairs (appointed by the board for a two-year term) who oversee specific portfolios necessary to manage the work of the activity centre. Chairs recruit and develop committee members.

Any member of the Society may attend and speak at activity centre council meetings.

On the Lifesaving Sport Council, Brittany Wong moved from Coaching Chair to Outreach Chair in February replacing Leslie Aziz. Ryan Foster was appointed Lifeguard Championship Chair and Chloe Fong was Social Media Engagement Chair from May to November.

On the Member Services Council, Jennifer Evans resigned as Rescue Commendation Chair in July and was replaced by Melanie Corbett in September.

On the Public Education Council, Sydney Shelp resigned as Swim to Survive Chair in April. Megan Hutchison resigned as Social Media Chair in October.

On the Management Training Council, Viktor Verblac was appointed Safety Management Inspection Courses Chair in February. Jennifer Fruscella was appointed Management Proficiency Chair in May. Nikolay Nikolov resigned as Webinar Chair to take up the Professional Development portfolio in June. David Pignataro resigned as Pool Operator Chair in October and Jonathan Wyatt replaced him in December.

On the Safety Standards Council, Patrick D'Almada was appointed Safety Audit Services Courses Chair and Andrea Slade was appointed Safety Standards Chair in May. Wasi Rizvi was appointed Safety Standards Research Chair in June. The Council added a new Technology Chair position in June.

The Area Services Council provides support services for Area Chairs, their volunteer personnel, and the individual members who support community delivery of drowning prevention activity. The Board of Directors appoints chairs to represent the Society in designated geographic areas. These volunteer area chairs operate in 37 regions of Ontario. Area chairs recruit volunteer committee members and field representatives to help serve the area.
