Evelyn has very recently celebrated her 90th birthday and has lived in Essex for most of not all of those years. Earl her late husband and Evelyn had 4 boys and 1 girl. Evelyn pretty much gave the land which is now known as Hunter Park many years ago for a small fee and she did this so the community could have a park for families. Over the years Evelyn has blessed many with her quilts, and beautiful antiques. She is an all around lovely woman that has been strong and has loved our Essex community.
